FAITH GIBSON HUBBARD:

BUILDING A STRONGER COMMUNITY, TOGETHER.

Faith's core values are centered around serving others and fighting for what is right. And she has built her career doing just that:

- ✓ Faith led the Mayor's Office of Community Affairs;
- ✓ She was DC's first Chief Student Advocate;
- ✓ and Faith served as the first executive director of Thrive By Five DC.

Throughout her career, she has worked with us to build a stronger community and enact meaningful change. Now, raising her own family here in Ward 5, Faith is running for DC Council to put her experience to work and deliver on her community-first agenda for us.

- ✓ Increase funding for our schools to guarantee a high-quality public education, and provide our students and teachers the resources they need to succeed.
- ✓ Prioritize quality, affordable housing so that all residents can afford to call our community home, and focus on funding for workforce housing to keep more neighbors in the ward.
- ✓ Expand multimodal transportation options, including improving public transit and traffic safety measures, to keep our neighborhoods accessible and safe, while addressing transportation inequities.
- ✓ Address the root causes of crime and invest in holistic approaches to public safety to stop violence while improving community policing, expanding violence interruption, and strengthening mental health programs.
- ✓ Strengthen our workforce pipeline by ensuring livable wages, quality benefits, and safety for all jobs, while supporting local businesses and expanding training opportunities, including apprenticeships and CTE programming.
