FAITH GIBSON HUBBARD: PEOPLE-FIRST SOLUTIONS TO KEEP US SAFE.

Faith Gibson Hubbard has always stood up for our community. She led the Mayor's Office of Community Affairs, was the first executive director of Thrive by Five DC, and served as DC's first Chief Student Advocate. Faith has advocated for comprehensive approaches to public safety to address the root causes of violence. And now, raising her own family here in Ward 5, Faith is running for DC Council to deliver on a community safety plan that works for everyone.

Faith's Community Safety Plan

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

- ✓ Expand violence interruption programs to proactively mitigate conflicts.
- ✓ Increase funding for the existing credible messengers program to support at-risk youth and young adults.
- ✓ Establish a Rapid Response team to offer immediate support to those experiencing violence.

IMPROVED POLICING

- ✓ Reestablish proactive tactics like community policing to strengthen trust between the community and law enforcement.
- ✓ Ensure that we have an adequate police force that can effectively serve our community.
- ✓ Get illegal guns off the streets by closing loopholes that allow firearms to illegally enter the District from neighboring jurisdictions.

MENTAL HEALTH SUPPORTS

- ✓ Invest in school-based mental health supports to meet the needs of students and families.
- ✓ Increase funding to locate essential services and case management supports within communities.
- ✓ Expand the Department of Behavioral Health's community response team's efforts to support those in crisis.

ADDRESS ROOT CAUSES

- ✓ Invest in holistic approaches that connect at-risk communities with the resources they need.
- ✓ Work collaboratively with local partners to create public health strategies to stop the spread of violence.
- ✓ Provide pathways to reentry for returning citizens including job training and improved access to affordable housing.
